WCSD COVID Related Absences

Walton County School District Policy: Students attending school in person who become sick or are quarantined will be able to receive and complete any missed assignments without penalty. Once a student has met the Georgia Department of Public Health's guidelines for returning to work/school, the student would be able to return to school.

MAHS COVID Related Absences Policy

All work assigned while a student is absent due to COVID related symptoms will be due no later than 10 school days after returning. This will be the only exception to the MAHS Make-Up Policy. COVID related absences will be identified by the attendance committee and teachers will be notified.
