Driver Permission Form

Your child has elected to take an online Georgia Virtual Course or online College Course in lieu of a class offered at Loganville High School. Students have the option of taking these courses at home or in at LHS (1st and 4th block only) Students who elect to participate in the course at home must adhere to the following rules:

- Students are required to sign in and/or out with Mrs. Brock each day.
- Students who leave campus will not be allowed to return prior to the start of the next instructional period.
- Students are responsible for providing their own transportation to/from school.

By signing below, you assume full responsibility for your child providing his/her own transportation to and from Loganville High School and further agree to release and hold Walton County School District and its employees harmless from any liability, which may arise as a result of your student driving himself/herself to and from Loganville High School.
